60 MINUTES

10/04/98 "A League Of Her Own"- an interview with 23-year-old Ila Borders, the first woman to pitch in men's professional baseball. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Jonathan Wells)
 "The Man Behind Paula Jones"- John Whitehead's Rutherford Institute has spent $400,000 supporting Paula Jones' lawsuit against President Clinton. The White House calls him a right-wing zealot but Whitehead claims he's simply trying to do the right thing (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)
 "In Memory Of Alisa"- Alisa Flatow, a 20-year-old honor student spending a semester in Israel, was killed in a terrorist attack. In 1996 Congress passed the Flatow Amendment which allows victims' families to sue foreign countries that sponsor terrorists but when Alisa's father, Steve, won a settlement against Iran the U.S. government has done everything in its power to keep him from collecting. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Pay Me, I'm Advertising" - products bearing names of companies

10/11/98 "Give Peace A Chance"- six years ago John Wallach, an editor for Hearst, sought to put an end to the continuing cycle of violence and hatred in the Middle East by starting Seeds of Peace, a summer camp in Maine for Jewish and Arab teenagers. The camp, supported by U.S. fundraisers and corporate sponsors, demands that applicants be intelligent, speak fluent English and have the approval of their governments (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
 "Autopsy"- studies show that nearly 40 percent of the listed causes of deaths in U.S. hospitals are wrong. Experts including Dr. George Lundberg, the editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association say that in order to improve the quality of medical care, hospitals must start doing more autopsies which would identify these mistakes. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
 "Yuri the Great"- a profile of Yuri Luzhkov, the tough and flamboyant mayor of Moscow. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Should They Or Shouldn't They" - the question of whether President Clinton should be impeached

- 10/18/98 "Second Chance"- an interview with 77-year-old Senator John Glenn, a former fighter pilot and astronaut who will be part of a seven man team on the space shuttle Discovery to be launched on October 29. (C: Walter Cronkite, Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
"A Million Men, Women And Children"- in the aftermath of the genocide that took the lives of almost a million people in Rwanda, Africa, 135,000 people accused of that genocide are in overcrowded, filthy dungeons. With just 40 lawyers handling all their cases, most of the people will die of old age before they go to trial. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
"Quinacrine"- Drs. Elton Kessel and Steven Mumford, American contraceptive researchers, are the world's sole distributors of quinacrine pellets for sterilization. Proponents claim that the drug, used widely in third world countries, is a cheap and safe method of birth control. Critics accuse the doctors of using poor women as guinea pigs. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Your Local Newspapers" - local news stories
- 10/25/98 "Baku"- Baku, an oil town in the former Soviet republic of Azerbaijan, collapsed along with the Soviet Union a decade ago. It is now drawing oilmen from around the world who have invested billions hoping to make this little-known city the world's gas tank for the 21st century. Includes an interview Heydar Aliyev, the country's president (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
"Kennewick Man"- the recent discovery of a 9,000-year-old skeleton not only seriously questions the notion that Indians inhabited America first, but is causing a science-versus-religion battle. While scientists are fighting for the right to study the bones, Indians say their religion requires they be buried immediately. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
"Kosovo"- Ed Bradley reports from the Serbian province of Kosovo, where thousands of refugees are living outdoors, driven from their homes by fighting between Kosovo Liberation Army guerrillas and the Yugoslavian Army. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Sports" - players and team owners alienating fans
Update: "Gearing Up" OAD: 12/21/97
- 48 HOURS
- 10/01/98 "Nature's Fury"- takes viewers to the eye of Hurricane Georges with the latest news on this natural disaster and the fallout that huge storms have on survivors' lives. Includes reports on: the 79-year-old survivor of the 1935 hurricane; baseball hero Sammy Sosa's visit to his home town in the Dominican Republic; and two families who lived through Hurricane Andrew. Includes interviews with Dr. Neil Frank, former director of the National Hurricane Center; and Brian Jarvinen of the National Hurricane Center. (C: Dan Rather, Bob Orr, Randall Pinkston, Bob McNamara, Anthony Mason, Bernard Goldberg - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer)
- 10/08/98 "Save My Child"- a behind-the scenes look at what happens over two days and nights in the emergency room of Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, including reports on: a 12-year-old boy who suffered serious burns in an accident with paint thinner; a seven-year-old boy struck by a car on a back country road and whose parents couldn't be found; a 14-year-old girl working on a family farm who fell off a tractor driven by her younger brother and was run over. Includes interviews with some of the hospital's doctors, nurses and chaplain. (C: Wyatt Andrews, Bill Lagattuta, Cynthia Bowers - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr.)

- 10/15/98 "Tough Love"- Worldwide Association of Specialty Programs, a Utah-based company, runs behavior modification schools in locations including Samoa, Montana, Jamaica and the Czech Republic. Desperate parents with unmanageable children whose problems include drug and alcohol abuse, failure in school, and running away from home, pay from $30 to $40,000 to have their teenagers subjected to a grueling boot camp regimen in locations far removed from their familiar haunts and habits. The effectiveness of the program has come under question because the teenagers are often subjected to mental and physical abuse, with inadequate medical care and no licensed therapists. Includes an interview with Dr. Gary Glass, a psychiatrist who feels that programs such as these can be helpful to some young people but pose a serious threat to others. (C: Harold Dow, Erin Moriarty, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Gavin Boyle - P: Loen Kelley, Tanya Simon, Jay Young)
- 10/22/98 "Torn By Hate"- today the Ku Klux Klan and other hate groups are on the rise. In Pennsylvania alone, the number of hate groups is five times greater than a decade ago. 48 HOURS takes viewers across the country into the lives of those involved in hate based on race or religion. Includes reports on Bonnie Jouhari, U.S. government fair housing advocate and mother of a biracial daughter, who was forced to leave her home; the Rev. Jeff Berry, leader of a division of the Ku Klux Klan; Brian Sander, a Pennsylvania prison guard whose grandfather was killed by the Klan; Dr. W. Stuart Harris, who has studied the history of the Klan and the murder in Nevada of an anti-racist skinhead. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Maurice Murad, Josh Yager, Peter Henderson, Mark Goldbaum)
- 10/29/98 "Dad's Double Life"- Fifteen years ago, after 15 years of a seemingly happy marriage, Elizabeth Welsh's husband, Patrick, left her and their two sons what appeared to be a suicide note and disappeared. Just last year, Elizabeth received a letter from the U.S. Government saying she owed them $66,000 because she had been mistakenly receiving death benefits. After investigating the situation, Elizabeth discovered that Patrick is still alive, living in Texas under the name Tim Kingsbury and using his social security number that matches his real identity. 48 HOURS followed this story to an Ohio courtroom, where Patrick was convicted of insurance fraud and non-support and sentenced to spend four years in prison and to make full financial restitution (C: Russ Mitchell, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Alec Sirken)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

- 10/11/98 "Transforming Men's Hearts: A New Prison Ministry"- explores the question of whether an intensive dose of religion in the last years of a prison term can reduce the likelihood that the inmate will commit another crime, focusing on IFI (InnerChange Freedom Initiative), a Christ-centered prison ministry founded by Watergate ex-convict Charles Colson. The IFI program takes a group of volunteers from the general prison population through a process of spiritual, moral, educational and social transformation and includes exposure of the inmates to victims' families through the Sycamore Tree Project. (E.P: John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)
